

If discovering the British culture and way of life is important to you, there's no better way than to stay with a local homestay provider. Homestay can give you a welcoming and personal experience during your study stay.

Living in homestay accommodation offers a unique intercultural experience and is one of the best ways to practise English outside the classroom. It also helps you to experience our culture and the British way of life, first-hand.

You can choose from two types of homestay accommodation:

- Standard
- Superior (private bathroom)

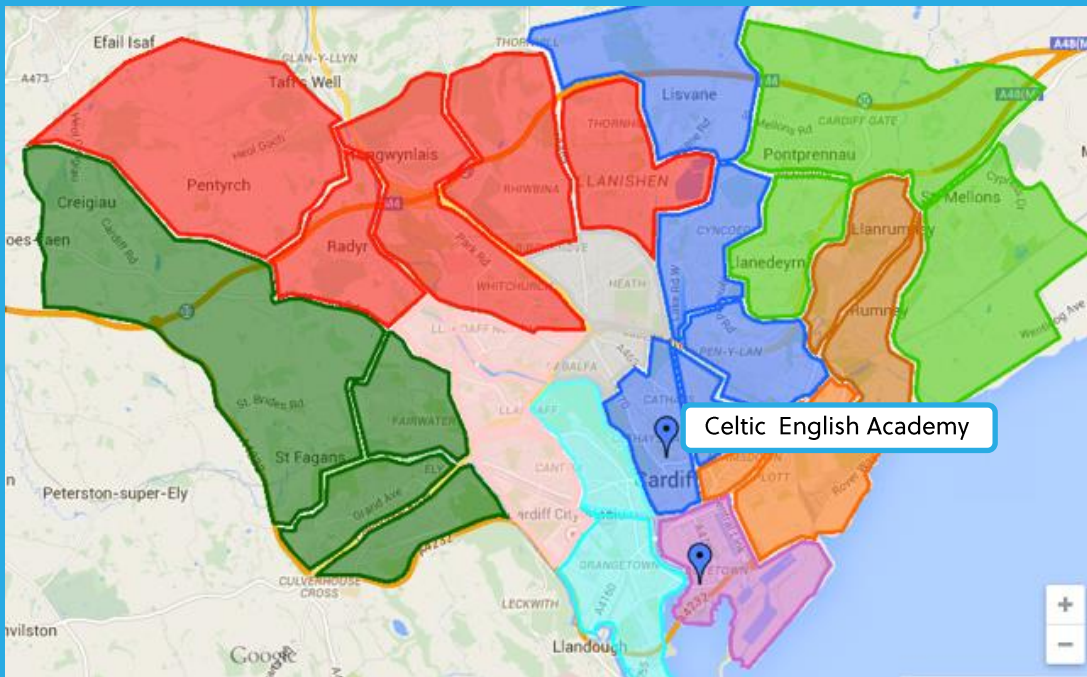

All accommodation options above have the following as standard:

- Own room
- Daily breakfast and evening meal
- Bedding and towels (provided by the homestay provider)
- Communal living area
- Bath or shower
- Washing facilities

Why should I stay with a homestay provider?

- Regularly inspected homes
- Friendly homestay coordinators
- Experience the British way of life first-hand
- Daily contact with native English speakers
- Students are matched with suitable homestay providers
- Breakfast and dinner are provided daily

Transportation/ Travelling time:

By bus or train, or on foot.
 Within 5 to 45 minutes' travelling time from Celtic by public transportation.

Laundry:

Students should be able to do one washing machine load of laundry per week. Please discuss with your homestay provider whether you should do it yourself in their machine or whether they will do it for you.

Internet:

All our homestay providers have internet access either through a broadband-wired connection or Wi-Fi. There may be usage restrictions on the amount of time or downloading you are permitted to do in the home. Please ask the homestay provider upon your arrival.

Meal Plan:

- Half-board: breakfast and evening meal included daily. Lunch is also provided at weekends.
- Full-board: also includes a packed lunch each weekday at an additional cost of £15/week. Full board is compulsory for all students under 18.
- Supplement cost for any special dietary requirements is £15/week (halal, vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, dairy free, lactose intolerance, nut allergy, shellfish allergy)

Notes:

- Cooking facilities are not included. Access to these is at the host's discretion.
- Dinner is the main meal of the day and usually includes meat, fish or poultry.
- If you have specific dietary requirements please inform us at the time of booking, in your application form e.g. vegetarian, halal, gluten free, etc.
- Students under 18 must book a full-board meal plan.
- Shared rooms are only available if booked together.
- A weekly retention fee of £70.00 is payable if you wish to keep homestay accommodation while you are away. This is not available in July and August.
