

ReAct Programme: Information for your Careers Wales Advisor.

Take this information with you to your in-person appointment or have it to hand at your online appointment.

English Courses you can take if you are granted the ReAct funding

If you're a non-native speaker of English living in Wales, learning or improving your English could be the first step to get the job you need. These are the English courses from Celtic English Academy that you could get covered up to 100% if you are eligible for the ReAct funding scheme.

General English

Increase your confidence and ability to use English day-to-day.

- Improve your day-to-day use of English for educational, professional or personal reasons.
- Increase your range of grammar and vocabulary as well as your ability to communicate in English.

Class Size: Maximum 10 students

Start Date: Any Monday

Course Length: 1-50 Weeks

Class Time: 08.45 - 10.15

& 10.30 - 12.00

Minimum Age: 16

Days: Monday - Friday

Method of study:

Online or in-person (subject to lockdown rules)

English for Work

Expand your range of business English vocabulary and techniques so that you improve your English skills for the workplace and gain confidence.

The core skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening are covered with content focused on business vocabulary, fields of work and practical workplace skills e.g. interview techniques, preparing CVs and participating in meetings.

Class Size: Maximum 10 students

Start Date: Any Monday

Class Time: 08:45 - 12:00 (GE20) &

13:30 - 15:00 (BE)

Minimum Age: 18

Method of study: online or in-person (subject to lockdown rules). The afternoon lessons are always online.

IELTS Exam Preparation and Cambridge Exam Preparation

We help you improve your level of English and provide you with the strategies and techniques you need to succeed in the IELTS or Cambridge exams. We can advise you about which exam is best for your needs or desired objectives.

- Strategies and techniques for dealing with each aspect of the examinations.
- Regular IELTS or Cambridge exam practice questions, followed by feedback and advice on how to improve to help prepare you for the exam.
- Regular practice tests.

Many employers and more than 15,000 higher or further educational institutions, government bodies and ministries, as well as companies, accept the IELTS and Cambridge Exams as a proof of English level.

We recommend taking Exam Preparation courses with General English, to make the full study programme (21 hours/28 lessons) to give the best chance of level progression.

ReAct Programme: You could get up to £1,500 of grant funding for training courses

What can you use the ReAct funding for?

Cover training costs

Get help with childcare costs

Get Extra Support with your study expenses

Who's Eligible?

The ReAct scheme is available for individuals who:

1

+

2

+

3

Have become unemployed on or since 1 January 2020 as a result of redundancy or for other reasons

+

are currently unemployed

+

have not been in continuous employment for 6 weeks or more between the date they were made redundant and the date of the ReAct grant application.

or

Are currently under notice of redundancy.

+

Have not done any publicly funded training since being made redundant or unemployed, including the work-based learning suite of programmes such as an apprenticeship.

+

Have been resident in Wales both at the date of redundancy/unemployment and at the date of the grant application.

Source: Careers Wales Website

Applying to the ReAct funding step by step

1

Contact Careers Wales

3

Funding Application

2

Choose a course

4

Start your English learning course

Gyrfa Cymru
Careers Wales

Apply for the ReAct Funding Scheme today

If you are eligible to apply, based on the criteria we mentioned above on this page, contact Careers Wales on 0800 028 4844 to get an appointment with one of their advisors.